Spreading Joy and Warmth:
SHK & Co. Volunteers Celebrate Dragon Boat Festival with Elderly Community

On May 30, 2025, the day before the Dragon Boat Festival, staff volunteers from Sun Hung Kai & Co. Limited (SEHK: 86) ("SHK & Co."), alongside its subsidiaries United Asia Finance Limited, Sun Hung Kai Credit Limited, and fund partner ActusRayPartners, participated in Hong Kong's Community Service Week, Serve-a-thon, organized by HandsOn Hong Kong. This annual service marathon mobilizes and empowers the community to address critical social needs in Hong Kong through volunteer work, supporting over 70,000 individuals in need since its launch in 2017.

During the service day, volunteers engaged in a workshop led by Ginkgo House, a prominent social enterprise advocating for senior employment, where they learned the traditional art of making rice dumplings, a festive delicacy for the Dragon Boat Festival. Afterward, they prepared heartfelt care cards and travelled to the Hong Kong Christian Service Bliss OPlus elderly community centre, where they distributed Dragon Boat Festival goodie bags filled with rice dumplings, noodles, biscuits, milk, and tea to seniors and their caregivers.

"I am delighted to participate in SHK & Co.'s staff volunteer service for this year's Dragon Boat Festival. This traditional occasion presents a wonderful opportunity to share care and love with the elderly in our community," said Raymond Chan, Co-founder of ActusRayPartners. "By collaborating with various non-profit organisations, we aim to bring joy and festive cheer to seniors while also fostering senior employment and promoting community engagement. Together, we can make a meaningful impact and strengthen the bonds within our community."

The event underscores SHK & Co.'s ongoing commitment to corporate social responsibility and its support for vulnerable communities in Hong Kong.

About HandsOn Hong Kong

As a local charity with the mission to empower everyone in Hong Kong to volunteer, HandsOn develops service programs in partnership with the city's under-served non-profit organizations and connects them with the volunteer manpower they need to achieve their mission. Each month, HandsOn runs 200 volunteer activities as a free public service, supporting over 100 frontline non-profits. These volunteers deliver food packages to people without jobs; build the confidence and communication skills of children with special needs; show care for lonely elderly; support mistreated domestic workers; show kindness to people experiencing homelessness, and much more. Every day of the year, HandsOn provides vital behind-the-scenes assistance to grassroots charities, serving as an extension of their teams and ensuring no charity serves alone.

About Hong Kong Christian Service - Bliss OPlus

"Bliss OPlus" was formerly known as "Wan Hon District Elderly Community Centre", which was founded in 1998. It was relocated to Choi Fook Estate in 2013, and was renamed as Bliss OPlus, which signifies that advanced age is something to be proud of, and our elders have the capacity to explore limitless possibilities. They are dedicated to providing one-stop, comprehensive and professional community support services for elders by upholding the community-based direction and adopting an integrated service model, with innovative approaches and a service mindset. They aim at promoting a self-initiated, self-learned and self-managed healthy life-style among elders, facilitating participation and continuous learning, so as to embrace their longevity and actively engage in discovering new horizons, to actualise active ageing and to put our new motto, "Proud Ageing, Creating Infinity" in action. Besides, they also provide comprehensive support to
